Maria Curie-Sklodowska University in Lublin
Different people different ideas
The Maria Curie-Sklodowska University is a state institution of higher education established in Lublin, Poland in 1944. It offers academic programmes at undergraduate, graduate and doctoral levels at ten faculties:

- Chemistry,
- Biology and Earth Sciences,
- Mathematics, Physics and Computer Science,
- Law and Administration,
- The Humanities,
- Economics,
- Pedagogy and Psychology,
- Philosophy and Sociology,
- Political Science,
- Arts
Monument of Maria Curie-Sklodowska
UMCS has 30000 students, 840 doctoral students and over 1800 including superbly educated academic staff and highly qualified specialists in many fields.

More then 160000 students have graduated from the university.

UMCS Campus is located in the city centre of Lublin, dormitories are near the faculty buildings.

All this makes Maria Curie-Sklodowska University the largest university in eastern Poland.
UMCS campus
Maria Curie-Sklodowska University offers a few full courses in English:

1. GRAPHIC ART STUDIES – Master of Fine Arts [The faculty of arts];
2. MATERIALS CHEMISTRY – Master of Chemistry [The faculty of chemistry];
3. MATHEMATICS – Bachelor of Since [The faculty of mathematics, physics and computer science];
4. MANAGEMENT – Master of economics [Faculty of economics].
The University’s Polish Language and Culture Center for overseas students

UMCS also runs the University’s Polish Language and Culture Center for overseas students. The standard offer of the Centre is adjusted to diversified needs and requirements of participants and comprises:

- One-year preparatory course for foreigners who wish to study in Poland;
- Polish Philology - three-year undergraduate studies for foreigners;
- Postgraduate programme in humanities for foreign students;

For more information please contact email: jmazur@ramzes.umcs.lublin.pl;
The European Ph.D. College of Polish and Ukrainian Universities [EKPiUU]

It is an institution founded by Polish and Ukrainian Universities.

- Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin,
- Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv,
- Ivan Franko National University of Lviv,
- National University of "Kyiv-Mohyla Academy".

The principal aim of the College is to educate future Polish and Ukrainian elites involved in developing cooperation between the two countries with in-depth knowledge.

The doctoral studies for Ukrainian students are free of charge. For more information please contact Mrs. Nadia Tkaczyk, +48815376404 email: www.ekpu.lublin.pl Studying at Maria Curie-Skłodowska University (UMCS) in Lublin has been a pleasure since the very first day. I have met great friends that I am sure we will be friends for a lifetime. Also, the quality of the courses are extremely high. I had the chance to compare my studies with other universities here in Poland, Europe and even in North and South America and I am sure that I am at the right place.

Bruno Schivinski
- Management and Sociology
Student from Brazil.
Lublin is the ninth largest city in Poland, with a population of 350,462 (2008). Lublin is also the largest Polish city east of the Vistula river, considered one of the oldest and most beautiful cities in Poland. Founded in 1317, it has its own unique atmosphere.

- Is a candidate for the title of European Capital of Culture in 2016
- Is a meeting point of many cultural traditions and religions
- There are six schools of higher education and almost 100,000 students.
Uniwersytet Marii Curie-Skłodowskiej

address: pl. M. Curie-Skłodowskiej 5, 20-031 Lublin, Poland
phone: +48 815375112
fax: +48 815375220
e-mail: promocja@umcs.lublin.pl internet: www.umcs.lublin.pl
Thank you for your attention